Reference Information

Please list three (3) individuals, the referees, who will be submitting a reference letter on your behalf, the applicant.

NAME OF REFEREE	REASON SELECTED

Required Information

All of your application material and supporting documents must be received by the Education Admissions Office on or before the application deadline. These documents include:

- A completed application form for admission to the program; the deadline for fall admission is on or before January 15;
- A letter of rationale which details your desire/passion to teach, and linking that passion to your experiences with children. Rationales should be two to three pages in length;
- Three (3) references who assess your suitability for the teaching profession in terms of your character, your personal qualities, and your ability to work with young people. Reference letters should be sealed and sent directly from the referee to the Education Admissions Office. Note: no family members, please;
- A list of your previous teaching/leadership experience with children in a resume format;
- Official transcripts from ALL post-secondary institutions you have attended. Crandall students need not submit their Crandall transcript. Students with post-secondary coursework outside of North America must have it assessed by World Education Service (WES) and this assessment sent to Crandall through WES. Students applying for the Bachelor of Technical Education degree must submit Red Seal documentation;
- Disclosure of Criminal Record information, including a vulnerable sector check. This can be obtained through your local RCMP detachment or policing agency;
- A non-refundable $50 application fee must be included with this application. Make cheques and money orders payable to Crandall University;
- If accepted, applicants are requested to contact the Registrar's Office with any requests for, or questions about, physical or documented learning disabilities and available accommodations.

Crandall's Christian Environment

Students at Crandall University are encouraged to make responsible decisions about their lifestyles and beliefs. At the same time, they are part of a Christian community which includes certain expectations regarding the way in which we live our lives together – expectations which are academic, social and personal. Students are required to attend chapel, and are encouraged to participate in community activities aimed at promoting personal growth. Additional information on community life standards are available in Crandall University's Student Handbook.

Agreement

- I give permission for Crandall University and/or its representatives to take my photograph while a student. These photographs may be used in various communications on behalf of Crandall.
- I do not give permission to Crandall University and/or the media to take my photograph while a student.
- I give permission for Crandall University to contact me through social networks (ie. Facebook, Instagram, WhatsApp etc.).

I certify the above information is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge; incomplete applications will not be considered for admission. I agree, if admitted, to respect the Christian ideals and standards of Crandall University and to abide by its rules and regulations.
